

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Thank You to Teachers and Small Group Leaders

Thank you to all our small group leaders and CrossKids teachers, who have shared God's love with our youth all year long. We have a special thank you gift for you to pick up in the office!

Book Club Monthly Meeting

Please join us on Monday, May 13th at 7:00 PM to discuss the book The Overnight Guest by Heather Gudenkauf. We will be meeting in Tea at Val West's home. Please contact me Dawn Krumvieda with any questions (dawn.krumvieda@augie.edu or 605-231-0850).

2024 South Dakota Synod Assembly

This year's Synod Assembly will be held May 31 and June 1 at Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Sioux Falls. The theme this year is Connect(ed). Please contact Pastor Lando or the HC Office if you would like to attend as a voting member of our congregation and join in the important work of being church together!

Garden Planting Night with WestSide

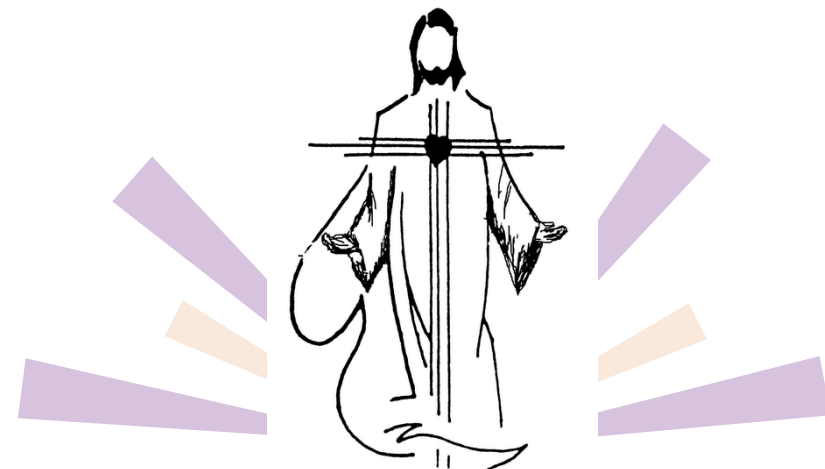

On Wednesday, May 22 at 6:00pm, we will meet at WestSide Lutheran Church to plant our summer garden! Bring gloves and gardening tools if you have them, but no experience is necessary. Contact Tyler Egge (tyler@holycrosslutheranchurch.org) with any questions.

Funeral Volunteers Needed

We are blessed to be able to serve God in many ways at Holy Cross, including serving for funerals. We are updating our volunteer list (high school age and older) for serving in the kitchen, setting up the gathering space, and baking or buying 2 dozen cookies, bars, or cake for funerals held at HC. Please contact Cecile (605-376-7121 or thebecrofts@hotmail.com) to be added to the list.

Prayer Requests

This week, we invite you to pray especially for Linda Jackson; the loved ones of Dean Jones; Lena Liana Splett as she is baptized today; and our high school and college graduates. We also rejoice with Mollie Hamre, Chuck and Joy Hamre's daughter-in-law, who was ordained yesterday to the ministry of word and sacrament in the ELCA. Pastor Mollie will be installed this morning at a congregation in the Twin Cities metro area.

Chapter 13

1Now in the church at Antioch there were prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen a member of the court of Herod the ruler, and Saul. 2While they were worshiping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them." 3Then after fasting and praying they laid their hands on them and sent them off.

Chapter 14

8In Lystra there was a man sitting who could not use his feet and had never walked, for he had been crippled from birth. 9He listened to Paul as he was speaking. And Paul, looking at him intently and seeing that he had faith to be healed, 10said in a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet." And the man sprang up and began to walk. 11When the crowds saw what Paul had done, they shouted in the Lycaonian language, "The gods have come down to us in human form!" 12Barnabas they called Zeus, and Paul they called Hermes, because he was the chief speaker. 13The priest of Zeus, whose temple was just outside the city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates; he and the crowds wanted to offer sacrifice. 14When the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard of it, they tore their clothes and rushed out into the crowd, shouting, 15Friends, why are you doing this? We are mortals just like you, and we bring you good news, that you should turn from these worthless things to the living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all that is in them. 16In past generations he allowed all the nations to follow their own ways; 17yet he has not left himself without a witness in doing good – giving you rains from heaven and fruitful seasons, and filling you with food and your hearts with joy." 18Even with these words, they scarcely restrained the crowds from offering sacrifice to them.
