Food to You Distribution - Tuesday, March 26

Join us as we serve food-insecure residents of Sioux Falls. This distribution is held at St. John American Lutheran Church. We are in need of 5 volunteers at 4:15 to sort & package food and an additional 15 volunteers at 5:15 to help with the food distribution and carry items to cars. Please come when you can. You may use the QR code to sign up.

Living Last Supper - Tuesday, March 26 at 6:00

Actors from Centerville and surrounding communities are preparing for the drama "The Living Last Supper," written by Ernest K. Emurian. The idea was first formulated by a Methodist minister in Virginia in 1953, pondering da Vinci's famous artwork of "The Last Supper." After studying the inspiring picture, he proceeded to write the soliloquies for the twelve apostles as they might have expressed themselves immediately after hearing Jesus say, "One of you will betray me," when each one cried out, "Lord, is it I?" It has been a source of inspiration to many audiences through the years and we are delighted to be hosting them this year!

Prayer Requests

We invite you to pray for everyone included in the ongoing prayer requests of our community. This week, we invite you to pray especially for Dean Jones, Penney Hovatter, and Jenna Miller.

You are invited to receive communion at our Lord's table this morning! In addition to bread and wine, gluten free wafers and white grape juice are available. If you are unable to come forward, we will bring communion to you. If you prefer to receive a blessing, you may indicate this by crossing your arms across your chest.

Mark 11:1-11

When they were approaching Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany, near the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples 2and said to them, "Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately as you enter it, you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden; untie it and bring it. 3If anyone says to you, 'Why are you doing this?' just say this, 'The Lord needs it and will send it back here immediately.'" 4They went away and found a colt tied near a door, outside in the street. As they were untying it, 5some of the bystanders said to them, "What are you doing, untying the colt?" 6They told them what Jesus had said; and they allowed them to take it. 7Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it; and he sat on it. 8Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut in the fields. 9Then those who went ahead and those who followed were shouting, "Hosanna!

Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord! 10Blessed is the coming kingdom of our ancestor David! Hosanna in the highest heaven!" 11Then he entered Jerusalem and went into the temple; and when he had looked around at everything, as it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

Mark 14:1-9

It was two days before the Passover and the festival of Unleavened Bread. The chief priests and the scribes were looking for a way to arrest Jesus by stealth and kill him; 2for they said, "Not during the festival, or there may be a riot among the people." 3While he was at Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at the table, a woman came with an alabaster jar of very costly ointment of nard, and she broke open the jar and poured the ointment on his head. 4But some were there who said to one another in anger, "Why was the ointment wasted in this way? 5For this ointment could have been sold for more than three hundred denarii, and the money given to the poor." And they scolded her. 6But Jesus said, "Let her alone; why do you trouble her? She has performed a good service for me. 7For you always have the poor with you, and you can show kindness to them whenever you wish; but you will not always have me. 8She has done what she could; she has anointed my body beforehand for its burial. 9Truly I tell you, wherever the good news is proclaimed in the whole world, what she has done will be told in remembrance of her."
