Mark 6:1-13

1He left that place and came to his hometown, and his disciples followed him. 2On the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue, and many who heard him were astounded. They said, "Where did this man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been given to him? What deeds of power are being done by his hands! 3Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?" 4And they took offense at him. 5Then Jesus said to them, "Prophets are not without honor, except in their hometown, and among their own kin, and in their own house." 6And he could do no deed of power there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people and cured them. 7And he was amazed at their unbelief.

Then he went about among the villages teaching. 7He called the twelve and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. 8He ordered them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts; 9but to wear sandals and not to put on two tunics. 10He said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place. 11If any place will not welcome you and they refuse to hear you, as you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet as a testimony against them." 12So they went out and proclaimed that all should repent. 13They cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them.

You are invited to receive communion at our Lord’s table this morning! In addition to bread and red wine, gluten-free wafers and white grape juice are available. If you are unable to come forward, we will bring communion to you. If you prefer to receive a blessing, you may indicate this by crossing your arms across your chest.
